DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments see pages 12 – 16, filed September 11, 2006, with respect to amended Claims 1 – 31 have been fully considered and in view of the interview held on 7/17/2006 and 9/27/2006 are persuasive. The 35 U.S. C 112 and 102 rejections of Claims 1 – 31 have been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 – 31 are allowed.

3. The following is a statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art's system and methodology singly or in combination are in contrast with specific steps of applicant's invention as described in detailed remarks/arguments filed on September 11, 2006 by applicant and as recited in independent claims 1, 28, 30 and 31.

4. Dependent claims 2 – 27 and 29 as being dependent upon Independent claims 1 and 28.

Conclusion

5. Any comment considered necessary by the applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should be preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should clearly be labeled "comments on statement of reasons for allowance."

6. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Gnuse, registration number 27,295, on September 27, 2006.

IN THE CLAIMS:

22. (Amended) A method according to ~~any~~ of claim 12, wherein the unique identification number is selected from a pool of numbers agreed between the legal entity C and the trusted partners of the legal entity C, and wherein the number is released after the transitory unique insignia has been invalidated.

31. (Amended) A method for securing an electronic transaction, comprising the steps of:

providing a computer based system for transmission of a transaction between a legal entity A who has an approval to perform a transaction and a legal entity B over an electronic communication network, the transaction being initiated by legal entity A;

legal entity A associating the transaction with a verification insignia to verify the approval to legal entity B, the verification insignia being a unique transitory insignia valid for a single transaction and valid only for a prespecified time to complete the transaction, the verification insignia including a unique digital code and optionally one or more of (1) a unique identification code which identifies the agreement between legal entity A and legal entity C, and (2) a time stamp identifying the exact date and time when the unique transitory insignia is assigned and transmitted by legal entity C to legal entity A;

providing the transitory insignia by legal entity C, who thereby guarantees that legal entity A has the approval, conditioned by legal entity A providing to legal entity C a secret identification code confirming the identity of legal entity A to legal entity C, the provision of the unique transitory insignia being transmitted through a different secure communication channel than the provision of the secret identification code;

starting a timer when assigning the unique transitory insignia, legal entity C or a trusted partner of legal entity C transmitting the unique transitory insignia to legal entity A through a secure communication channel;

legal entity B validating through legal entity C the unique transitory insignia and upon positive validation and only then accepting the transaction; and legal entity C invalidating the unique transitory insignia upon completion of the transaction;

so that the receiver of the transaction has the possibility to verify on-line, the sender's legal rights to perform such a transaction.
